in perfect condition.

This rug is a beautiful decorative and comfortable piece, the decor is abundant and beautifully designed and the kerk wool is of high quality.

The Sarough carpet, or Sarouk, the Ecbatana of Antiquity, is knotted in a few villages near Sarouk in the agricultural region of Arak.

European buying houses have had agencies there since the mid-19th century.

Most of these rugs are nicknamed hamadan by traders, particularly the runner rugs knotted in this region.

These Persian rugs remain very popular in the United States where decorators appreciate the heavy and important luxurious wool pieces.

These carpets have very good resistance to traffic.
