399 EUR

Description

Elegant model of a small merchant ship circa 1850. Monoxyll wooden hull, pretty in shape, succinct deck, green keel and black and white paint with false ports in use at the time on merchant ships. Incomplete mature and with old restorations, requires a bowsprit, four yards and a slap, therefore easy small restoration. On a simple wooden support. Beautiful 19th century models have become increasingly difficult to find, this complete one will be very beautiful in its original form. Second half period
