Description

Exceptional enameled and cracked ceramic vase by the artist Georges Jaeglé born in 1885. He trained alongside Raoul Lachenal. Founded his workshop in Bretigny sur Orge to the south of Paris in the 1920s. Exhibited at the decorative arts society in 1926, 1929 and 1930. Here is a very beautiful representation of his art and his talent with this beautiful, elegant and decorative vase from the 1930s. Height of 31 cm for a neck diameter of 10.5 cm and 16 cm for the base. In very good shape ! Visually superb! Notice to amateurs and collectors! Rare piece in this crack work! Do not miss !
