

Arlesian Heritage And Pharmacy, 4 Albareilles Late 18th Century From Trinquetaille

950 EUR

Signature : Verrerie de Trinquetaille

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Glass

Diameter : 9,5cm

Height : 20,5cm

Description

Suite of 4 beautiful shouldered Pharmacy jars, blown individually, in this glass made during a short period end of the 18th century, using sand from the bed of the Rhône, and Salicornus ash, giving it this deep black amber color in transparency.

These pots, each slightly different, still form a family. Trinquetaille, mainly used this glass for truffle pots and jars, for the sometimes enormous bottles of this wine country, but here is a batch, found in our region which proves its pharmaceutical production.

Good condition, late 18th century, 20.5cm x 9.5cm, weight of each: 300gr.
