Description

This advertising painting on cardboard represents a detailed and evocative still life scene.

In the center, a bottle of Bénédictine is surrounded by various elements which create an atmosphere that is both elegant and relaxed.

In the background, a bouquet of flowers in its pot adds a touch of color and freshness.

On the right, a still lit cigar rests on an ashtray, letting out a fine plume of smoke, testifying to a scene still alive.

On the left, sulfur matches are placed in a pyrogen, ready for use.

Two glasses filled with liquor flank the bottle, suggesting a moment of sharing and conviviality.

The whole is in good general condition, with only slight traces of use, testifying to its age but retaining all its period charm.

This painting is completed by its original frame, a thin oak stick lightly gilded on the chamfer.

The work is signed lower right by the artist *Jehlen - Pary*.

This advertising chromolithograph, already imbued with vintage charm, would fit perfectly into a retro or eclectic style decoration. The scene, with its details and its warm atmosphere, would find its place in a kitchen, a living room or even an elegant office...
