Description

THE ARCHITECT, LARGE BRONZE SCULPTURE

With this patinated bronze, the artist has created a work of great symbolic power.

Often a simple support needed to structure a work, the base of this sculpture is here used to convey a message. With a keen eye for detail and an in-depth knowledge of geometric symbolism, the sculptor offers us a powerful reinterpretation of the idea of the Architect, creator of the Earth and the Stars.

Often present in medieval art through illuminations or mosaics, God the Creator of the universe is a figure of Christian art and its alchemical tradition. Both geometrician and creator, the artist's Architect allows us to stage the ancient idea of « tracing in the ground » as an
