Description

Particular and refined polychrome porcelain vase, the result of the artistic collaboration between P. J. Gibus and M. Redon. This extraordinary object combines characteristics of the Neo-Renaissance and Art Nouveau movements, and can be dated to the second half of the 19th century. The vase is equipped with four elegant handles, which give a touch of originality to its shape. The decoration of the object is exceptional, characterized by delicate and refined vegetal motifs, with leaves and flowers rendered with great artistic mastery. On the base of the vase there is the brand showing the monogram of the collaboration between the two artists, underlining the quality and uniqueness of the work. This piece represents a masterpiece of style and creativity that combines the traditional aesthetics and artistic
