

Lucien Gibert (1904-1988) - "head Of A Woman Ouled-naïl"

6 900 EUR

Signature : Lucien Gibert (1904-1988)

Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Bronze

Description

Old bronze proof by Attilio VALSUANI Black patina with nuanced green background Signed, founder's stamp Black marble base Circa 1940/45 Height: 56 cm Ref: Original plaster reproduced in Stéphane Richemond's work "Les Orientalistes" - Les Editions de l'Amateur - Page 99 Biography: Lucien GIBERT (1904-1988) Lucien Gibert, born in Saint Etienne, began his artistic training in the workshop of his cabinetmaker father. He enrolled in the Beaux-Arts of his hometown then in 1921, those of Paris where he was a student of Jean Boucher. He only stayed there a short time, preferring to work independently, guided by Charles Despiau. Very influenced by Maillol, he first practiced direct carving on wood and stone. He exhibited from 1923 at the Salon des Artistes Français and at the Salon des Indépendants. In

Dealer

Galerie Paris Manaus

Paris-Manaus Gallery

Tel : 0608518537

Mobile : 0608518537

Village Suisse, 95 grande allée, 78 avenue de suffren
Paris 75015

1934, he presented a frame including six medals depicting portraits which was worth a bronze medal and a travel grant awarded by the High Council of Fine Arts, and during the year 1935, he traveled to North Africa . He received the gold medal in 1937 at the Paris International Exhibition. In 1941, he exhibited a plaster sculpture at the Salon des Artistes Français: "Algerian Dancer" and received the Vital-Cornu Prize. This same bronze model was exhibited in 1943 at the Salon des Indépendants and at that of the Société coloniale des Artistes Français (1st participation) Winner and scholarship holder of French Equatorial Africa in 1947, he traveled first to Algeria, then to Africa black and brought back sketches and photographs which inspired sculptures which further enriched his already considerable work. In 1954 he won the Algerian prize. He had already exhibited subjects of orientalist inspiration at the Salon de la Société des Artistes Français. Knight of the Legion of Honor in 1950 Paris-Manaus Gallery Sold with invoice and certificate Very good state of conservation General delivery conditions: We organize delivery worldwide. A quote on request will be provided to you at the time of your purchase.