Description

Gorgeous Art Nouveau pewter vase, created by Louis Auguste Moreau (1855-1919).

The vase is named "The Day" and is part of a pair, the second being called "The Night," representing the man.

It features a splendid representation of a nude woman with flowing hair and drapery caught in the wind.

The flowers and nature, prominent attributes of the Art Nouveau movement, are executed with perfection.

The vase boasts a beautiful brown patina and is in perfect condition.

Height: 30 cm.
