Description

Very beautiful polychrome porcelain dish mounted on a finely chiseled bronze frame and resting on three claw feet. This porcelain, used as a bowl or centerpiece, is entirely decorated by hand with a magnificent landscape of a river, waterfall and a heron in the foreground. It is decorated with a double rim separated by small brass beads. Decorator's mark under its reverse, see photos. Shipping and protection costs 25 euros in mainland France, other destinations contact us.
