Description

A wonderfully patinated early 19th-century French hammered copper confectionery pot used in the candy and chocolate-making process,

With hand-forged handles and a hammered copper riveted rim.

In original untouched condition, with a period repair to a handle and a few dents makes a great look, it can be polished if desired.

The pot is watertight and can be used as a wine cooler or adapted as a sink in a butler's pantry or powder room.

Price Reduction from 450 Euro

35 cm in diameter, 19 cm at the edge, and 22 cm at the top of the handles.
