Description

An outstanding 19th century, Victorian period hall stand in solid mahogany with big arched frame, carved detailing, the original marble, 14 original turned mahogany hat and coat supports, 4 brass hooks to the sides and the original centralized arched mirror, above a shaped marble top with glove drawer beneath, flanked by stick stand areas retaining their original metal drip trays with fret carved arms and supports to rest your umbrellas and sticks, all standing on a shaped plinth base with small bun feet. Exquisitely carved, this hall stand is solid and sturdy, yet with a graceful and delicate look. Dating from about 1860.
