Description

Superb bathroom console, circa 1900, in natural wood with a spacer and a drawer on the crosspiece, topped with a very beautiful dark pink marble with white veins supporting a shelf along the entire length, a repair of the marble at the corner bottom right, it nevertheless remains very solid, the lower shelf of the console has a minimal lifting of the wood, very little visible bathroom furniture presenting a lot of charm and practicality, I also offer you a perfectly matched bathroom vanity unit but lacquered in black and without basin at the price of EUR780
