Description

Oil painting on canvas representing a bouquet of varied flowers on an entablature from the 1930s and 1940s in the spirit of the 17th century Dutch or Flemish school. Very beautiful painting with an undeniable decorative effect with a trace of signature at the bottom right. Note, in addition to the quality of the work, the lively and dynamic treatment of the flowers, entirely in the spirit of Dutch realism. Magnificent painting to place above a beautiful chest of drawers or console in a beautiful interior. Gilded and carved wooden frame, dimensions 58 by 73 cm. Possibility of sending in France and throughout the world by professional carrier and by secure package.
