Description

Chiseled and gilded bronze candelabra decorated with sphinxes and rams' heads. Beautifully carved, this pair of four-light candelabra has a triangular base with hollowed-out sides centered on a shell and resting on three fluted console feet. Three sphinxes punctuate the corners of the base and end in a foliage console resting on the central shaft. This is decorated with three antique emperor profiles in a foliage console frame and gives rise to three opposite double volute branches ending in a ram's head
