Description

Interesting round table with opening and closing flaps all in walnut wood, typical of the Umbrian area or the Apennine center throughout the sixteenth century. The piece of furniture is in a good state of conservation and maintains a beautiful original patina of the wood. Upon request, a restoration of the piece of furniture could be carried out in order to re-establish the total integrity of the patina, a little worn over time, which will then be treated with a high-pressure polishing. there was.

The table measures 127cm long x 71cm high. The diameter of the open top is 120 cm. Depth of the closed table is approximately 42 cm.

We attach a certificate of authenticity to the sale.
