Description

Cabinet of curiosities

"Cabinet of curiosities 3: memento mori / superb bracelet made up of 10 skulls with transformed morphology, carved from deer antler ?

They are all different, very finely detailed: skulls of demons and monsters, Buddha, vampire... Superb work of miniature sculpture. One of them is for example separated into 2 along its width, depicting the face of a young man for its left half and a skull for its right half

Beads are separated from small flat horn beads and leather discs. The bracelet is mounted around a modern elastic thread.
