Cultured Pearl And Faceted Opal Bead Necklace

2 500 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Gold

Description

Necklace of cultured pearls falling in pearly white orient, they are separated from each other by flat and faceted opal pearls.

The clasp is in white gold, ratchet with safety chain. It is rectangular with cut sides and set with rose-cut diamonds.

Main material: white gold, 750 thousandths, 18 carats, eagle's head hallmark

Diameter of the pearls: approximately 4/4.5 mm to approximately 7/7.5 mm.

Length: approximately 45 cm.

Net weight: approx. 16.8g.

Our opinion: Less classic than the traditional cultured pearl necklace, this revisited necklace is particularly luminous thanks to the play of colors of the opals and the whiteness of the pearls.
