Description

Evening twilight on the river - is a painting in which the light of a beautiful sunset merges with the mysterious waters of the river. This artwork immerses us in the atmosphere of a quiet and calm evening, when the sun is already setting behind the horizon, and the sky is painted in various shades of orange, yellow and pink. The trees, slowly plunging into darkness, add a special mystery to this landscape. The reflection of heavenly light and trees on the surface of the river creates a feeling of soft tonal shimmer. A lonely house on a small hill tells us about the privacy that every person needs from time to time to gain peace of mind and balance. The painting was created with such skill and subtlety in conveying mood through color that it takes us into the realm of mysterious silence that can slow down the
