Description

Discover this magnificent set of four miniature birds from the 20th century, probably representing long-tailed orioles, exquisite pieces that captivate with their delicacy and realism.

These well-preserved miniatures are a tribute to the beauty of nature, frozen in impeccable detail. Each bird in this set measures approximately 30 cm in length and 12 cm in height, dimensions which allow you to fully appreciate the meticulous artistic work carried out to make them as realistic as possible. The level of detail in each miniature is remarkable, from the finely sculpted feathers to the carefully painted colors that faithfully reflect the splendor of the long-tailed orioles. Each bird seems ready to take flight, capturing a moment of life in a static object.
