Description

Large Miniature from the 18th - 19th century representing a portrait of a young woman. This Oil on copper is placed in a beautiful free-standing frame which opens from the back. It is decorated with cabochons which seem to me to be made of Rhine stones. The miniature is protected by thick beveled glass. An original object of very good quality. Frame size: 11.3 x 7.3 cm. View: 7.2 x 5.7 cm; The whole is in good condition, just note that a stone had to be changed because the size and shine are different (see the photo).
