Description

Romantic school watercolor painting from the 19th century 1870 1880 by Alice MA Baumgartner. Very interesting work by this endearing artist from the end of the 19th century taken from life in the manner of the Impressionists. This artist was part of a group of artists who worked together and evaluated each other's work. Each artist had a nickname, Boots, Pig, Crumpets, and Care for Alice. Comments and praise were noted on the back. Care is noted on the back as well as several comments. Note the high quality of the graphics and the rendering of the lighting giving this piece an undeniable fantastic and mysterious character. Excellent condition of the whole and the colors. Very beautiful period gilded wood frame. Frame dimensions 52 by 44 cm. Possibility of sending in
