Description

Oil painting on canvas from the 20th century, abstract school by Ricardo Santamaria. Very interesting work by this remarkable artist, part of his folds and folds series which began in 1981. He was born in 1920 in Zaragoza and died in 2013 in Pressac Lot France where he lived and worked the last part of his life. An artist with a rich and exciting career, he was one of the first members of the Spanish group Portico, a pioneer of abstract and informal painting. Here a very beautiful and luminous work of rare size, he produced many large formats, ideal for a chest of drawers or console top. Possibility of sending in France and throughout the world by professional carrier or by secure package.
