Description

These porcelain dishes, produced in China towards the end of the 19th century, have an elegant design characterized by a rounded and slightly protruding rim, as well as a flat bottom positioned on a small foot. The decoration, made with a rich variety of colours, is embellished with refined gold finishes. At the center of the dishes, lively scenes of everyday life are depicted that capture the viewer's imagination. Along the edge of the dishes, delicate images of flowers and butterflies are painted, which give further elegance and refinement to the work of art.

Measurements: HxDM 20 x 20cm.
