Description
-------------

Vietnam, end of the 19th century - beginning of the 20th century, very pretty bronze incense burner with tripod base on a circular base presenting on the main body two large hollow reserves decorated with Fo dogs evolving in a plant environment in strong relief . The openwork lid is also decorated with plant motifs. Under the base is visible a stamp in relief in the material.

The whole thing is of good quality.

Height 23.6 cm. The scale indicator in the last photograph is a small model of a lighter from a brand known to everyone.

Good condition except for slight normal wear and tear and some cast iron defects in the decoration characterized by openwork material; nothing abnormal and no impact on the beauty of the room. The lid is not perfectly stable due to the
