Description

Art deco period walnut and leather desk. The sober proportions are typical of this period. The continuity of the wood grain of the drawers presents all the know-how of the cabinetmaker. The butterfly-shaped top is contrasted by salmon leather. (new) The base set back from the frame is enhanced by a detached tray. The buttons and the crotch are chrome. It is ideal in the middle of a room thanks to its 4 visible sides. The whole combines functionality and space saving. Possible delivery not included in the price
