Description

It is probably an oil, made in relief, on what seems to us to be cardboard laminated to black melamine, everything is typical of the 80s. The surround is in gold metal. On the back, we can read on a label: "Art and tradition of Celtie and elsewhere, Dominique Delforge-Dorleans Rencontre du Quatrième Type, July 2 to 15, 1982 exhibited, the sale price was 3000 francs in 82. The composition is more than interesting, a little futuristic The whole thing is really very 80's, perfect to take its place above a modern sideboard. We report friction in various places, small white dots on the bottom and scratches. but everything remained rather fresh for the time. Despite these small defects, the work remains in superb general condition. For the condition, please detail the photos. from the description
