Description

Henry Coëylas (1844-1923) Country Gallant Scene oil on canvas circa 1880-1890

A lovely gallant scene inspired by the emblematic painters of the 17th and 18th centuries, such as Fragonard and Watteau. A beautiful composition, installed on the balcony of a castle and overlooking a river, the gallant women respond to the greeting of a walker in a rowboat in a country landscape with swans.

Beautiful oil on canvas signed lower right in the decor, framed in molded wood and gilded to perfectly complement the painting.

Sizes unframed: H 18.11 Inches. - W 24.01 Inches.
