Description

Empire period summer coffee service consisting of the coffee maker, the teapot, the milk jug, the sugar bowl, the creamer, 7 cups and 7 saucers.

This service is decorated with gray lake landscapes on an ochre background.

Each piece in this set has a different painted decor.

Observe the beautiful detail of the swan neck for the spout of the coffee and teapot, see photo.

Beautiful gold highlights on a white background of very high quality.

To observe, a shine is to be deplored in the sugar bowl, not visible when the lid is placed.
