

Siena Marble Restoration Clock Gilt Bronze Hunting Stag Dog 19th

Description

Pendulum in Siena marble and bronze (gilded and brown patina) representing a hunting scene, with a hunting dog at bay chasing a deer, as well as different attributes of hunting (hunting horn, trophy, rifle, pear powder, game bag...), sides decorated with acanthus leaves and the feet of cornucopias, from the Restoration period at the beginning of the 19th century. This clock is in good condition and is of remarkable quality. It has been serviced and works perfectly. The movement is by wire, we have the balance wheel but not the key. Dial signed by a watchmaker in Clamecy (hard to read). Please note: slight wear on the dial, micro-chips on the marble, wear over time, see photos.
