Description

Superb Louis XIII style Walnut Lions Armchair. 19th century period. This magnificent, richly carved and molded armchair is upholstered in a pretty leopard patterned fabric with a Tapissier nail finish. Its wide, straight backrest topped with two small lions has a molded, openwork wooden belt, carved with 8 small balusters. Its vibrant armrests are sculpted with lion heads. Supported by sculpted consoles in the shape of balusters. It rests on a baluster base, turned joined by an H-shaped spacer. Perfect stability. It has a very comfortable seat. Note a small lack at the level of a barely visible baluster (see photo). Seat height: 47 cm. Beautifully made and high quality furniture. Delivery with insurance included possible throughout France for an amount of 100 euros. Do not hesitate to contact me for more
