

Chair By Werner Biermann By Arte Sano - Brutalist Style - Wood And Leather - Colomb

Description

Chair by Werner Biermann by Arte Sano - Brutalist Style - Wood and leather - Colombia 1960 Designed by Werner Biermann, this chair was published in Colombia by Arte Sano. Its design takes up the codes of South American design from the 60s by offering materials with a raw and massive appearance. The structure of the chair is made of solid teak. Thick spacers are present, the legs are slightly tapered in their lower part. The seat and back are made of thick pieces of leather stretched and tied together with beige cords. The chairs date from the 60s, they are patinated and marked by a nice experience. The leather is shiny, with traces of time. Werner Biermann's chairs were made in Colombia, they are functional and comfortable. 44.5cm wide, 47.5cm deep, 46cm seat height and 80.5cm total
