Description

Charming drawing representing a man seated with a compass. The facial expression recalls the remarkable work of Louis Aubert's followers. This quality drawing, made with three pencils, has pleasing proportions and was subsequently framed. Despite a few slight accidents and a slight sunstroke, it was doubled for its preservation, showing some scratches. The work was seen by the Bayser Cabinet. Dimensions at sight: 29 x 21 cm Dimensions with frame: 37 x 46 cm
