Description

Large German reservist painting from 14/18 (as a reminder of my hours of service), of Private Gren Bugalski, guard of the 4th company of foot regiments, accompanied by the military booklet of his son Louis Bugalski soldier called class 1912 Alsacien-Lorain Reinstated at his request in French nationality S2 of the annex to section V of the peace treaty, with his French passport. Two identity documents from Louis Bugalski's son, Bugalski Marcel Charles are also present, one from 1938 and one from 1943. The Bugalski family therefore received German Empire nationality and then French nationality in Hayange department of Moselle. Beautiful historical testimony. Good condition. Frame dimensions: 58 x 49 cm.
