Description

Beautiful cage-shaped chandelier with twelve arms including six arms of lights in bronze and with its old crystal pendants, some of which are slightly mauve.

Ornamentation of nine daggers in two rows and numerous thick crystal plates with stars and rosettes, in its center a large dagger supported by baluster shafts and ending with a ball in the shape of a cut pear

Louis XV period mid-century 18th century

This chandelier of very beautiful proportions, particularly harmonious and well balanced.

Modern redone electrification.

Note: a bronze cup and a slightly different crystal dagger, small usual restorations (welding) and some chips on the tassels
