Description

This solid mahogany and mahogany veneer table has a knockout belt with a shaped bronze rod around its edge. On either side, we find a drawer fitted with a bronze cup button with patterns. On the sides, this table has shelves surrounded by a mahogany frame with a lens pull button. They are dark with new dark green lambskin with cold label and gold label. This table rests on four spindle legs, with fixed grooves, ending in a shoe. In the upper part we observe grooves fixed on the belt. This Louis XVI bouillotte table is topped with a beautiful circular white Carrara marble. This is surrounded by a gallery in chiseled brass and openwork in the upper part. *****
Period: Mid-19th century Perfect condition after restoration in our workshop. Finish: satin varnish
