Description

Sculptures by Eliane Monnin (born in 1976).

All pieces are stamped.

This designer is well known for her sculptures which represent stylized aquatic plants. In this case, we can imagine the coral world.

These objects are made of stoneware with the appearance of porcelain or biscuit. Some pieces are partially enameled. The coral tips are enameled in white.

Some tips were broken and repainted. There is also a repaint on a gray branch. There are two very small chips on a small dark green sculpture. The whole thing remains very good.

Height of the main sculpture 42.5 cm and diameter 15 cm. The small pieces measure between 17.3 cm for the largest and 7.3 cm for the smallest.
