Description

Large Florence mirror, 17th century Tuscany. Extremely rare large Florentine, Tuscan apartment mirror from the first part of the Baroque period in wood carved with louvres and gilded with leaf then burnished and amati, in a rectangular quadrilateral shape. This mirror is characterized by an exceptional work of symmetrical sculptures on several levels of depth, gradually rising like a mille-feuille where plant windings, volutes and acanthus leaves rub shoulders symmetrically, the emblem of the Medici family, the flower Florence lily. A large rounded strip of plain laced laurel leaf frieze, the main decoration encloses the ice. The ensemble of incredible lightness attests that only the hand of a virtuoso master sculptor could have executed it for a rich sponsor. Dimensions: height 157cm
