Description

Large gouache watercolor representing a large panorama of a valley in Switzerland or Northern Italy, very well composed with many quality details, at the first river with two peasant women, at the front with cows grazing quietly in a valley with in the distance, a village with characters and in the background standing out from the mountains Trace of signature at the bottom left "merault" or "me...oult", large format, very decorative, of good quality, a trace at the top right in the fading sky, the price taking into account!! The work is presented framed in a Louis XVI style baguette Very decorative
