Description

COD 11113

Antique religious painting from the second half of the 17th century. Oil on canvas artwork, first canvas, depicting the Tribute Money. In fact, there was a tax for the maintenance of the Temple of Jerusalem. When asked for tribute, Jesus asks Peter to pay with a silver coin. Peter does not have any coins and is therefore invited by his master to catch a fish in the lake. In his mouth he will find the silver coin and the miracle is accomplished. 19th century carved and gilded wooden frame, beautifully decorated, with some signs of aging. Painting that has undergone restoration work with replacement of the frame and restoration of color in some places. Overall in a fair state of conservation. Sight size H 88 x W 143 cm.
