Description

Mahogany dining room table with Louis XVI style sash, it opens with three serving leaves of 50 cm each. Two folding feet provide very good stability when open. The four fluted feet are decorated with a ring in the upper part and end in a shoe. This table in very good condition has been refinished. With the three extensions it measures 2.70 m by 1.20 cm. Note the very comfortable height under the belt: 67 cm. This very well made table has the stamp marked with the irons of a salamander mark of the cabinetmaker André Mailfert.
