

Crystal Refresher Pitcher.

Description

Frosted and cracked crystal cooler pitcher or carafe. Piriform in shape with a flared and trilobed neck, the pitcher is a pretty ruby pink with a slight gradient going from darker to lighter than the neck towards the base. Coiled, fluted and white handle. It is in the reservoir located in the carafe (see photo) and whose entrance is located under the socket, that we easily accommodate the ice cubes allowing the drink to be refreshed without diluting it. Very good state. Could be Baccarat, Saint-Louis...
