Description

Lovely living room table called "refresher" - early 19th century and Louis XVI-Directoire style (1780-1805). The Sainte-Anne marble top and its two zinc tanks to place bottles on. Very elegant model for a refined dining room. Characteristic of French savoir vivre in the art of "setting the table" to properly receive your guests, the bottles not being presented on the dining room table. Solid mahogany, two trays and a small drawer. 14 cm in diameter for the cooler tanks 1 cm thickness of marble
