Description

This tomb chest of drawers in violet wood opens with three drawers of identical dimensions, curved and pot-bellied. The fronts of these drawers are inlaid with violet wood veneer elements arranged vertically, horizontally and diagonally alternating, offering geometric, but also symmetrical, shapes. Each of the drawers is decorated with a lock with key, a large entrance with rocaille decoration and two large handles with gilded bronze scrolls. This piece of furniture has a bronze acanthus leaf lamp base. Each generously curved upright is adorned with a Louis XV drop silhouetted continuously on an openwork shoe. The moving sides are also inlaid with geometric shapes. The whole is topped with a red Pyrenean marble top that matches the lines of the furniture. Offering an interesting storage
