

Lacquered And Gold Leaf Tattooist's Bowl 19th Century Burma

180 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Gilted wood

Length : 8 cm

Description

Rare coconut shell tattooist's bowl for religious tattoos in temples, black lacquered coconut carved with crowned monkey motif and covered with gold leaf, Mandalay province, late 19th century, Burma, beautiful patina of use. Length 8 cm, height 2.5 cm, collected by me in 1990 in Mandalay.

Dealer

Dionisio

South East Asian Art

Mobile : 06 07 24 23 35

16 Rue Estacarede

Puimisson 34480