Rare provenance for this type of object, in very good condition

This object was used by shepherds and field workers, day laborers, etc. There were several sizes, the number of which varies according to the production centers, from 4 to 6. The shapes of these dinner carriers are variable, they are truncated in Burgundy, pomiform in Ile-de-France, flared in Anjou, etc.; the attachments of the handles, depending on the region, feature cherub heads, rosettes, fleurons, human masks, etc.
