Description

Today we offer this important folding chest of drawers of Emilian origin from the Modena area of the early 18th century, therefore still Louis XIV. The elegant piece of furniture is characterized by an exceptional carpentry work with a shaped and finely moved front and interspersed between all the four drawers of the original end woods. The patina that preserves this rich walnut plating that completely envelops the piece of furniture is splendid. The locks and handles are also original. Inside the drawer with an elegantly shaped profile, we find the four drawers in perfect condition and also rooted in walnut like the rest of the furniture. The piece of furniture is in excellent condition and original in every part. Prior to delivery, the piece of furniture can be reviewed by our trusted restorer to
