Description

This oil on canvas was made by David Arué, the signature is to be identified. It is probably a work from the beginning of the 20th century. It is of beautiful workmanship, made with great mastery.

The colors are very impressionist, a beautiful perspective. It is in a generally good state of conservation. There is a tension band around it.

Sold as is, as presented. Note some stains in places. We offer you another work by the same artist. For the condition, please detail the photos.
