Description

Large flat desk with two drawers, opening with seven drawers with locks, green leather-covered top with a gold vignette around the edge and patterns in the corners. Beautiful cabinetmaking from the early 20th century, this Louis XVI style desk is double-sided, elegant and functional, the drawers, the edge of the top and the panels on the back are highlighted with a brass bead. The top has a rounded recess in each corner which covers the column base hollowed out with grooves, the whole is supported by eight small spinning top feet dressed in bronze sabots. The piece of furniture is in perfect condition, the leather of the desk which is original, shows traces of use and some scratches.
