Description

China, 18th century, very pretty small porcelain dish with an Imari decoration depicting a pagoda decoration in a garden in the center. The green color is enameled in light relief with small delicate touches. The wing is decorated with sixteen vertical reserves decorated with flowers. Piece of good quality.

Diameter 22.8 cm. The scale indicator on the last photograph is a small model of a lighter from a brand known to all. Good condition except for slight normal wear and a micro chip on the wing at seven o'clock due, as very often, to the wall hanging system; without any impact on the beauty of the piece.
